

CATALOG DISCLAIMER

This academic catalog was prepared for the 2024-25 academic year by the Bismarck State College faculty and staff, who have made every effort to provide accurate information. However, the information is subject to change without notice and may not be regarded as binding obligations on BSC or the state of North Dakota. BSC reserves the right to change or discontinue programs or courses, admissions requirements, graduation requirements, policies, instructors, fees, calendar, and any other aspect of college operations. All such changes may apply to prospective students as well as those currently enrolled at Bismarck State College. Should programs be eliminated or discontinued, the college reserves the right to determine an appropriate phase-out process. It is recommended that students regularly review the online catalog for updated requirements.
